

June 1, 2020
Nakata Engineering Co., Ltd.

Notice (Emergency measures against coronavirus)

With the lifting of the state of emergency by the Japanese government this time, we decided to end the telework shift except the certain department at the end of May.

We will continue to pay utmost attention to prevent the spread of infection and customer satisfaction.

Should you have any question, please contact to our sales representatives.

Satoshi Nishimura
Director of sales department

